BOTH QUALITY AND QUANTITY.

THE NEW YORK HERALD says:

"The Standard is the most satisfactory and most complete dictionary yet printed."

A. G. WILKINSON, Ph. D., Principal Examiner, U. S. Patent Office, says:

"Its superiority is unquestioned; I gave it preference on all disputed points. It is the most perfect dictionary ever made in any language."

"Its vocabulary is the most encyclopedic ever compiled."—The Athenaeum, London, England.

"The words introduced have run the gauntlet of competent and discriminating scholarship."—The Arena, Boston.

"In connection with the etymologies must be mentioned one of the very best practical improvements—the relegation of etymological information to modest parentheses at the end of the article. This simple change is so admirable, so truly popular, that it is astounding it has never been thought of and put into play before."—Atlantic Monthly.

In indicating pronunciation "It introduces the simplest and best method of phonetic representation yet devised."—Atlantic Monthly, Boston.

It is not only the most accurate, consistent, and complete, but its typographic excellence makes it THE FAVORITE among men engaged in book making. It is "up to date." Hundreds of useful words and helps are found in THE STANDARD which can be found in no other publication of the kind.
